

That sounds just like Washington, trying to stick their dirty little fingers in the pie again. They are always looking for ways to mess with the free enterprise system, so they can get their grubby little paws on the profits. Next they will want a piece of the action with some kind of assinine tax, or some other such nonsense!!!!!!!!!!!!!!